HOME LEARNING

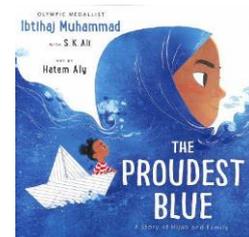

For home learning this week we would like you to think about the places that are special to you outside of your home and school. Is there anywhere you go with your friends or family that make you feel happy, special or safe?

We would love to see pictures of your special places to be on Tapestry.

Dear Parents & Carers

This week we have shared the story 'The Proudest Blue' by Olympic medallist Ibtihaj Muhammad. With her new backpack and light-up shoes, Faizah knows the first day of school is going to be special. This wonderfully illustrated story begins a powerful discussion on how we choose our words and use the powers of knowledge and understanding to help us understand and celebrate people's differences.

In Maths this week, we have been using numberlines and resources to find 1 more and 1 less than a given number. The children have enjoyed taking on the challenge of finding the missing numbers faster than the grownups!

We have enjoyed thinking about special places in RE this week. We shared the places we like to go to that make us feel safe, happy and loved like our home, nanny's house or our friend's house. We went on a virtual tour of a church and talked about how churches are special places of worship.

Have a wonderful weekend.

Our Vision & Values

This week we have been thinking about our value of community. Sharing the places that we feel safe, happy and loved. We know that our values make our school a very special place to be.

Star of the Week

This week we celebrate
Sharena

We love the way Sharena has been joining us on the carpet for stories, songs and rhymes this week, always singing beautifully and making everyone smile!

Important

Please feel free to ask any questions about key dates/events happening in the next few weeks. There are so many exciting things happening!
