HOME LEARNING

In DT we are going to design and make a moving picture (Christmas card). Please send in any photographs of you exploring and pop up/moving picture books.

Soft Bear will continue to choose a friend to go home with each weekend. He will bring his bag and a special book to share.

Soft Bear loves reading and would enjoy seeing the special stories you have at home too!

Dear Parents and carers,

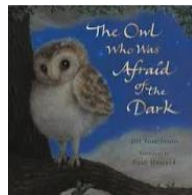

We have had a busy week this week and have settled back into our school routines after the half term.

This week in history we have been starting to think about the different toys we played with when we were younger compared to the toys we play with today.

In RE we are starting to think about why Christmas matters to Christians. We have also started to learn the songs and dances for our school Nativity.

This half term we are lucky to be doing dance with Lisa from Razzmatazz. Lisa is teaching us our dance for the Nativity.

We had a fire drill on Wednesday. The children were all calm and super sensible, well-done Shell Cove!

This week our Talk Through Stories book is The Owl Who was Afraid of the Dark (one of my favourites!). We really enjoyed this story, especially finding out about how the different people in the story feel about the dark.

Many thanks and have a lovely weekend.

Mrs Attwood
