HOME LEARNING

Please read your reading book 3 times a week. This helps to improve speedy reading and confidence.

Can you go on a material hunt around your house? What different materials can you see?

Soft Bear will continue to choose a friend to go home with each weekend. He will bring his bag and a special book to share.

Soft Bear loves reading and would enjoy seeing the special stories you have at home too!

Dear Parents and carers,

Another week flown by! What a chilly week!

We have continued our art this week by looking at self-portraits by famous artists. We talked about the different portraits and described what elements of the painting we liked and didn't like.

We have started our science learning on materials. We sorted objects into groups according to what material they are made from. We went on a material hunt around the classroom to see what materials we could find.

In RE we are finding out about Judaism. We talked about the different things we like to do on the weekends so we can compare this to the weekends of Jewish children (talking and finding out about Shabbat).

In Geography we are continuing to find out about the UK. We are exploring the different seas and oceans around our island.

Please can you ensure your bookbags and reading books are in school on a Friday so I can collect old books and give out new reading books.

A reminder-PE is on Mondays so please come in your PE kits.

We would also like to welcome Ruzgar into our class this week. The children have all been so lovely and kind in welcoming him in.

Have a lovely weekend,

Mrs Attwood
