HOME LEARNING

This week, the children have come home with instructions on making a rain collector. It would be amazing for you to make these with them and see how much rain can be collected over the half term to continue our geography learning on UK weather. Especially as we leave winter and approach spring.

Reading

Please read at least 4 times a week. Repetition builds recognition of unfamiliar words to make them easier to recall and read at speed. Please log in to Oxford Owl, read the book and take the quiz.

PE

Monday. Please come to school in your PE kit

Dear Parents and carers.

It has been a lovely week back in Oyster Cove. The children have come back with a great thirst for learning.

Thank you to everyone that made it to parents evening. It was a great opportunity to be able to talk about the amazing progress the children have been making this year and celebrate that with you.

This has been a week of introducing the children to their new areas of learning for the term. We are all very excited about our history this term. We will be learning all about the Great Fire of London. We have been building on our understanding of timelines this week to work out when this happened in time. We will be building structures in D&T and this half term we will be understanding Holy Week as we look at the Easter story.

As mathematicians, we have been grappling with our reasoning skills and interpreting data in different ways, using tally charts, pictograms and block diagrams.

I wish you all a restful weekend and look forward to seeing everyone on Monday morning!
